TENDER NOTICE

FOR MARINE INLAND TRANSIT OPEN DECLARATION POLICY WITHIN TELANGANA STATE.

The Cotton Corporation of India Ltd. is a fully Owned Government of India Undertaking and is carrying out procurement of kapas (seed cotton) and converting it into lint/FP bales through processing kapas (seed cotton) in ginning and pressing factory engaged on job basis and is also purchasing the F.P. Cotton bales from Traders.

Under the Jurisdiction of Adilabad Branch, purchase operations are carried out at various Centres in the state. List of Centres is given as Annexure-I. At these Centres, raw cotton is purchased and kept in Ginning and Pressing Factories engaged by the branch for processing. The stock in the factory comprises kapas, lint, seed, FP Bales, Tarpaulins, Gunny Bags etc. Bales/Seeds obtained are stored at these locations. After processing bales are moved to the Godown hired by CCI from SWC/CWC/APMC Co-operative society/ Private party's Godowns. Further, the corporation also purchases readymade bales from the mills which are also stored in the godowns. During procurement the kapas, lint, F.P. bales, Tarpaulines, Grey cloth Bales and other Misc. Stock is transported from one place in state to other in the state within Telangana State.

It is also proposed that the kapas purchased at kapas purchase centres may be transported to and stored in godowns hired by CCI from CWC/SWC/ APMC Co-operative society/ Private parties and it may be sold without processing.

For coverage of Transit Risk of stock during its movement from anywhere within Telangana State, we intend to undertake Marine Inland Transit Open Declaration Policy and therefore, we invite Sealed Tenders in two bid-system from all the Insurance Companies those are IRDA approved Insurance Companies company should submit their tender directly to the corporation.
