RE-TENDER NOTICE

FOR MARINE INLAND TRANSIT OPEN DECLARATION POLICY (For Coverage of stock during its movement from anywhere in Gujarat to anywhere in Gujarat)

The Cotton Corporation of India Ltd. is a fully Owned Government of India Undertaking and is carrying out procurement of kapas (seed Cotton) and converting it into lint/FP bales through processing Kapas (seed cotton) in ginning and pressing factory engaged on job basis and is also purchasing the F.P. Cotton Bales from Traders.

Under the Jurisdiction of Branch office Rajkot, purchase operations are carried out at various Centers in the state. List of Centers is given as Annexure-I. At these Centers, raw cotton is purchased and kept in Ginning and Pressing Factories engaged by the branch for processing. The stock in the factory comprises kapas, lint, seed, FP Bales, Tarpaulins, Gunny Bags etc. Bales/Seeds obtained are stored at these locations. After processing bales are moved to the Godown hired by CCI from SWC/CWC/APMC/Co-Operative Society/Private Party's Godowns. Further, the Corporation also purchases readymade bales from the Mills which are also stored in the godowns. During procurement the Kapas, Lint, F.P. Bales, Tarpaulines, Grey Cloth Bales and other Misc. stock is transported from one place in state to other place in the state.

It is also proposed that the Kapas purchased at Kapas purchase Centers may be transported to and stored in godowns hired by CCI from CWC/SWC/APMC/Co-Operative Societies/ Private Parties and it may be sold without processing.

For coverage of Transit Risk of stock during its movement from anywhere in state to anywhere in state , we intend to undertake Marine Inland Transit Open Declaration Policy and therefore, we invite Sealed Tenders in two bid-system from all the Insurance Companies those are IRDA approved Insurance Companies. Insurance company should submit their tender directly to the Corporation. Tenders through brokers shall not be accepted.
