

Revision in Benchmark Prices

To give an impetus to Indian Cotton Industry to regain and increase its share of exports in international trade, CCI has decided to review its bench mark prices for its daily electronic auction. Since the stock of CCI is of very high quality, it is hoped that the industry will benefit from higher quality of raw material being made available to them at attractive prices.